Just Retribution at Last.

BOSS TWEED CONVICTED IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 19.—The Tweed jury gave a verdict of guilty on all counts. The defense took exceptions to any except general verdict on all counts.

The defense moved an arrest of judgment on the ground of want of jurisdiction under the act of 1870 creating the Board.

The court replied that it was useless to waste time, as the court was convinced on these points.

The defense remonstrated.

Judge Davis replied that he had no intention to wound the feelings of the counsel for defense.

The defense said the remarks by the prosecution to the points made by the defense were humiliating, the prosecuting attorney calling them trifling.

JOHN H. JAMES, Banker.

REAL ESTATE.

On Tuesday, November 25, 1873.

—IN—

ATLANTA, GEORGIA,

VALUED AT FROM

$85,000 TO $100,000.

DESCRIPTION OF JOHN H. JAMES' PROPERTY

I WILL sell at auction in this city, commencing at ten o'clock on Tuesday morning, the 25th of November next, the following described magnificent, central, rent-paying Real Estate:

1. That splendid five story (besides basement,) BRICK STORE, on the corner of Whitehall and Hunter streets, Dry Goods Emporium, occupied by Louis deSaulles & Co. This building cost $30,000, and rents for $3,100, all new, and a first-class building.

2. One two story (besides basement,) BRICK STORE, on Whitehall street, next door to James' Bank corner, occupied by Mrs Agnes Turner, and rents for $1,580.

3. One VACANT LOT, on Alabama street, 30½ by 68 feet, alley on east side.

4. BRICK OFFICES, adjoining above lot, on Alabama street, occupied by Samuel Hoyle, rents for $900.

5. One BRICK STORE, occupied by John Domini, next to the last named offices, and rents for $760.

6. VACANT GROUND, fronting on Peachtree street, adjoining the new brick stores now being built by Busby, Boyd & Robinson. Also the brick cottage in rear of said ground, formerly occupied by Mr. James, fronting on Mills street, rents for $680. This is divided so as to make 5 store lots and 2 residence lots. Nos. 1 and 2 will be sold for store lots. Nos. 3, 4 and 5 will be sold for stores, or in connection with No. 6, by closing the alley they will make one of the best residence lots in the city.

7. One VACANT LOT, on Church and Forsyth streets, triangular shaped, next to Messrs. Boyd and Brother—No. 1.

8. A four room COTTAGE and LOT, on Cain street, occupied by James Patterson, rents for $400 per year.

9. About TWO ACRES of ground around the celebrated Walton Spring, divided as per plat into 18 lots, some of them beautiful for residences.

This recent money panic has given Mr. James some inconvenience, and he desires to sell his property and increase his banking capital. Moneyed men, now is your time to get some of the best property in this city at low prices, as Mr. James is determined to sell. His loss by this sale will be the buyer's gain.

His private residence on Peachtree street, that cost $60,000, and his Bank Block, on Whitehall street and the Railroad, that cost $75,000 last year, and rents for $10,000 per annum, will not be sold. He thinks the above and some other property will sell for enough to answer his purposes.

☞ Plats of vacant property will be posted.

☞ Capitalists from a distance and at home are invited to examine all this gilt edge, rent-paying, central property.

TERMS.—One-third Cash, balance in four and ten months, with ten per cent. interest—unquestionable cities.

Loan certificates and deposits in Mr. James' Bank received in payment. Good Railroad, City or State Bonds and Stocks received as Cash at their market value, which will be agreed upon before the sale commences or inquiry of Mr James at his banking office. Parties who cannot make payments as above, may make special arrangements with Mr. James before the sale, provided they purchase.

This is certainly the finest opportunity for capitalists to make safe investments, that has been presented for years. I will show the property or give any information about it, at any time, to those who may call at my office.

ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

FOR 1873.

A DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER,

DAILY AND WEEKLY.

THE FAVORITE OF ALL CLASSES

Lawyers, Merchants, Farmers, Etc.

TWELVE REASONS FOR SUBSCRIBING

1. THE CONSTITUTION is published at the Capital of the State, and contains Proceedings of the Legislature in full, together with constant and accurate information of the doings of all the Departments of the State Government.

2. It has the sole and exclusive right of publishing the DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT from the Reporter of the Court. These Decisions are delivered on Monday of every week and are immediately published in THE CONSTITUTION. Hence every lawyer in Georgia should take the paper, and the great proportion are subscribers.

3. THE CONSTITUTION is the Official Journal of the State, of the city of Atlanta and a large number of counties.

4. THE CONSTITUTION publishes a weekly Cotton Editorial, embracing remarks on the Gold Premium and all matters affecting the cotton trade, with statistics difficult to be obtained elsewhere. Producers and dealers in cotton, not alone in Georgia, but all over the country, procure THE CONSTITUTION for these articles.

5. THE CONSTITUTION furnishes Telegraphic Dispatches and news from all quarters of the globe, including markets, domestic and foreign. Hence the paper is popular with merchants everywhere.

6. Besides our Daily Associated Press Dispatches, THE CONSTITUTION has specials from Washington, the National Capital.

7. Its Correspondence Department is unsurpassed on the South, having special correspondents at Washington, New York, and in various parts of the country.

8. THE CONSTITUTION publishes a monthly Fashion Letter from New York, written by the most celebrated female Fashion writer in the United States. The ladies, therefore, all want THE CONSTITUTION.

9. A new feature for this year will be Weekly European Correspondence, by which the readers of THE CONSTITUTION will be taken on a tour through Europe.

10. The ablest writers and statesmen of Georgia select THE CONSTITUTION to give their views to public, and so do the PEOPLE, and hence it is the admitted leading Democratic Journal of the State.

11. The two great SPECIALTIES, our SUPREME COURT DECISIONS for the lawyers, and our COTTON articles for the merchants and farmers, make THE CONSTITUTION unrivalled in this part of the South.

12. For the reasons given above, THE CONSTITUTION is the paper for all classes, lawyers, merchants, farmers, mechanics and others, circulates in every county of Georgia, has the largest State circulation and is, therefore, the favorite medium for ADVERTISEMENTS.

Every Georgian should, after taking his own local paper, subscribe for THE CONSTITUTION, published at the Capital of his State; and we would here return thanks to the people for a patronage, that has culminated in the grandest newspaper success known in the Southern States. THE CONSTITUTION, not yet five years old, has attained a circulation never reached by a Daily paper in Georgia, and has erected a magnificent five-story building of its own, as complete as any in the United States, giving employment to seventy or eighty persons daily, and running a half dozen presses by steam. Visitors to Atlanta are cordially invited to call and examine THE CONSTITUTION building and its powerful presses, printing four or five thousand papers per hour.

TO THE SUPERIOR COURT OF SAID COUNTY.

THE petition of J. C. Watkins, J. N. Langston, J. M. Cranch, J. G. Thrower, W. R. Barrow, H. H. Dickson, J. C. Rogers, A. J. McBride, J. D. Holmes, H. Franklin, J. T. Eichberg, J. Pfiefer, W. S. Grambling, R. A. Holliday and W. R. Hanleter, respectfully showeth that they have associated themselves together for the purpose of accumulating a fund from monthly contributions, fines and interest, on investments and loans for the benefit of the members thereof, sufficient in amount to enable the Association to purchase a lot and erect thereon a building to be known as "Odd Fellows' Hall, in the city of Atlanta."

For the purpose of effecting said object, your petitioners desire and ask for a charter incorporating them and their future associates under the name and style of "The Odd Fellows' Hall Association of Atlanta," and under that name and style to use a corporate seal to sue and be sued, to elect officers and to make all rules and by-laws necessary to carry out the objects of said Association, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States or of this State. The term of said incorporation to continue for twenty years. Provided however, the same may at any time be dissolved by a vote of two-thirds of the members.

Your petitioners further show that from the nature and object of their association they have no capital stock and they ask that their petition may be granted as asked for.

OFFICE OF BRANCH, SONS & CO.,
BANKERS AND COTTON MERCHANTS.
AUGUSTA, GA., October 7, 1873.

WE offer for sale $10,000 MACON AND BRUNSWICK RAILROAD BONDS, November Coupon; $10,000 MACON AND BRUNSWICK RAILROAD BONDS, January Coupon.

These Bonds are secured by indorsement of the State of Georgia, and we will sell them at the low price of SEVENTY CENTS on the dollar.

They offer a rare chance to Capitalists, who can now have an opportunity of purchasing a Security as good, in our opinion, as a State Bond, at thirty per cent less.

The faith and credit of the State of Georgia have been pledged for the payment of the principal and interest of these bonds, and that fact should be sufficient to recommend them, in addition to their low price, to those seeking safe investments, at a good interest.

The Legislature last year, in order to give a reassurance to the holder of these Bonds, of the determination of the state to keep good her name as in former passed unanimously the following resolution, which was approved by His Excellency Governor James M. Smith:

"A Resolution in reference to the State's guaranty on the bonds of the Macon and Brunswick Railroad Company:

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly met, and it is hereby resolved by the authority of the same, That that State's guaranty placed on the Bonds of the Macon and Brunswick Railroad Company is binding on the State."

Approved August 14, 1873.

GEORGIA—Fulton County.

TO THE SUPERIOR COURT OF SAID COUNTY.

THE petition of J. C. Watkins, J. N. Langston, J. M. Cranch, J. G. Thrower, W. R. Barrow, H. H. Dickson, J. C. Rogers, A. J. McBride, J. D. Holmes, H. Franklin, J. T. Eichberg, J. Pfiefer, W. S. Grambling, R. A. Holliday and W. R. Hanleter, respectfully showeth that they have associated themselves together for the purpose of accumulating a fund from monthly contributions, fines and interest, on investments and loans for the benefit of the members thereof, sufficient in amount to enable the Association to purchase a lot and erect thereon a building to be known as "Odd Fellows' Hall, in the city of Atlanta."

For the purpose of effecting said object, your petitioners desire and ask for a charter incorporating them and their future associates under the name and style of "The Odd Fellows' Hall Association of Atlanta," and under that name and style to use a corporate seal to sue and be sued, to elect officers and to make all rules and by-laws necessary to carry out the objects of said Association, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States or of this State. The term of said incorporation to continue for twenty years. Provided however, the same may at any time be dissolved by a vote of two-thirds of the members.

Your petitioners further show that from the nature and object of their association they have no capital stock and they ask that their petition may be granted as asked for.

Dr. Calhoun's Liver Pills.

I AM engaged in the Manufacture of the Celebrated Family Medicine, known as the Calhoun Liver and Anti-Bilious Pills, under the supervision and assistance of Dr. Calhoun himself. This Pill has been in use for the last thirty-five years, and has taken precedence over all other Family Preparations, by all that have used them. Thousands would certify to their great value if necessary. One fact should supersede any amount of certificates, and that fact is this: Dr. Calhoun has been physician to the Fulton County Prison for over seven years, when the number of prisoners ranged from 40 to 70, laboring under all the diseases incident to this climate. With but few exceptions, they have all been treated with this Pill, and astonishing to say, during that long period not a solitary death occurred under his treatment. This fact is worth any amount of testimonials.

I am now prepared to fill orders from Druggists, Merchants and others. All orders sent me shall receive prompt attention. There is no type of FEVER, DYSPEPSIA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, RHEUMATISM, CHOLERA MORBUS, BILLIOUSNESS and SICK HEADACHE, or other diseases of a southern climate, but yields readily to this preparation.

Two Cherokee warriors and three squaws illumine the Federal Court with their copper countenances They are here as witnesses in the pension frauds. One of them is "Sairie Mumblehead," for whom a pension was made out as a soldier's widow, when she was but a pappoose of thirteen years. Among the attendants at the Evangelical Alliance was General Hamilton, son of Alexander Hamilton. In speaking of his father, the General said that the morning that he went out to meet Burr at Hoboken he was especially tender to his family. He took his eldest son into a room alone, and made him repeat after him the Lord's prayer. He refused to lift the pistol presented to him by the second, according to custom, saying, "I do not intend to fire at Colonel Burr." That little incident of the Lord's prayer was always a great comfort to Mrs. Hamilton during the long years of her widowhood.

After Mr. Joseph Jefferson has finished his engagements in Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, he will retire to his beautiful estate in Louisiana, which he purchased many years ago, on the river Teche. It is situated in a region of marvelous beauty and luxuriance, especially famous for its fishing and hunting, oranges, and pecan nuts, and lovely foliage, and inhabited by a primative people, descendants of the old Breton French, who retain all of the original peculiarities of dress, domestic habits, language, and religion. There are some two thousand acres in Mr. Jefferson's property, which is distant by rail and steamer some eight hours from New Orleans. Here he regains health, enjoys quiet, and receives his friends.

The largest stand pipe of the South Bend, Ill., waterworks was raised in position Tuesday. This is the first attempt ever made to raise so large a tube from the ground in one piece, and of course the event attracted immense crowds from every direction and the occasion was made one of great rejoicing on the part of the citizens of South Bend The stand pipe was constructed by the National Boiler Works of Chicago. The length of the tube is 200 feet, diameter 5 feet, weight 43,332 pounds and capacity 24,600 gallons. It is made of 103 plates of iron, fastened by 9,836 rivets and has 1,400 feet of caulked seams. The weight of the base casting is 10,923 pounds.

Rear Admiral Gustavus H. Scott, who left on Monday in command of the squadron from Norfolk bound for Cuban waters, is an experienced officer, and has been upward of 45 years in the naval service. He is a Virginian, and was appointed to the Naval Academy from the State in 1828. After serving successively on the West India, Mediterranean and Pacific squadrons, he was commissioned as Commander in 1856, and acted as Lighthouse Inspector until 1861, when, at the outbreak of the civil war, he was placed in command of the Keystone State. He commanded the steam gunboat Maratanza, the steamer De Soto, and the steam sloop Canandaigua, in succession, during the war. In 1869 he received his commission as Commodore, and has since been promoted to the rank of Rear Admiral.

☞ Governor Washburn arrived in Washington the 13th instant, and he attributes his defeat for Governor and that of his party, in no small degree to the Credit Mobilier and back-pay jobs of the last Congress. The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune reports him as follows:

"He said that the political change in his State had not apparently effected business, and the success of the Republican party in Wisconsin in the future, the Governor thought, would depend upon the action of Congress this winter."

New York Imports and Exports.

For the first ten months of 1873 the imports were 359 millions against 381 millions for 1872. The exports for the same time were 290 millions in 1873 and 254 millions in 1872.

The import of specie in October, 1873, was $9,869,869 against $605,862 for October, 1872.

The Reduction of Prices in New York.

We called attention the other day to the example set by the Claflins in reducing the prices of their goods twenty per cent. The example has been largely followed.

We see, however, that the merchants have called a meeting to prevent by concert of action any farther reduction in goods.

For Cuba.

In Missouri a St. Louis regiment of volunteers offered its services to Governor Woodson to go to Cuba and help thrash the Spaniards for the Virginius atrocity.

Governor Woodson replies, wishing that he could accept the offer, but says he must wait for the action of the Federal government. He closes his reply by intimating that the time will soon come unless the government is oblivious to honor patriotism and the voice of the people.

The Dead Democracy.

The "dead Democracy" now has Governors in the States of Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri, Indiana, Wisconsin, Maryland, Ohio and Connecticut; and the Democrats elected their candidate for Governor in Louisiana, but the Federal Government put the defeated candidate, Kellogg, Republican, in the gubernatorial chair. If Democracy be dying, in its death throes it is annihilating the entire host of the Philistines Long may Democracy die that way.—Greenville Union.

An Incongruous Advocate.

We have seen no finer illustration of the progress of the day than the lecture of a young Massachusetts girl in St. Louis on the Social Evil. It rather staggers one at first, but then, you know, it is so easy to get used to things.

The young Miss calls herself Miss Nellie L. Davis, and hails from North Billerica, Massachusetts. The St. Louis Globe said the lecturer was pretty and she spoke well.

But the way she handled the delicate topic of marriage and the dainty theme of social sin was lovely—especially in a young girl. Where the comely young innocent got all of her ideas and knowledge on the naughty subject one must indulge in lively speculation. There was no mincing of terms, no modest allusion, no kid-glove handling of her facts, but an open, square out, unmasked discussion of things by their names in the freest possible sort of a style.

We must confess that the spectacle presented by this bold young miss is revolting enough. It is no cheering development of the present civilization. We read in the Bible of wise men learning from young babes. But God forbid that the day is at hand when it shall become a general and accepted thing for our young unmarried women to become public gadding grapplers with the filthy mysteries of lust and libertinism.

The Signal Service.

General Myers, who is better known as "Old Probabilities," drew a fortune in the matrimonial way, and went to Europe. He returned last month, and immediately took charge of the country's weather, which had been doing about as it pleased on the principle that when the cat's away the mice will play. And now we have his annual report, which is a very interesting document, and one that will repay perusal. We regret that we have not space to give it in full.

During the year our weather-prophet ordered cautionary signals to be displayed along the lakes and sea-coasts in anticipation of eighty-eight probable storms. Seventy of those storms occurred on Old Probs. schedule, and it is fair to presume that the other eighteen made every preparation to come, but were unaccountably detained. No extensive storm occurred during the year in the regions included in the system of cautionary signals without warning of its approach having been displayed in at least, part of its course. The public confidence evinced in the heed given to the warnings when they are shown, proves their general utility.

The accuracy of the daily deductions styled "probabilities," is more clearly presented in the last than in preceding years. The average per centage of verifications was as follows: New England, 81.50; Middle States, 81.17; South Atlantic, 79.92; Lower Lakes, 78.90; Eastern Gulf, 74.40; Ohio Valley, 76.42; Western Gulf, 74.40; Upper Lakes, 75.25, and Northeast, 70.00. It is mathematically demonstrated that the rules used in the "probabilities" are practically correct; and that with an increased number of stations the per centage of verifications will annually approximate precision.

A large amount of work has been accomplished during the year. Systematic and continued instruction in military signaling and telegraphy has been given at the signal schools of Fort Whipple, Va., and in the department of the Missouri. The number of stations from which the office receives its stated meteoric reports has been increased to ninety-two, of which eleven are in Canada and three in the West Indies. For the study of the phenomena of the upper air, a permanent telegraphic station has been established on the summit of Pike's Peak, at an elevation of 14,216 feet, in addition to those on Mount Mitchell, N. C., and on Mount Washington, N. H.

The office has made great efforts during the year to make its daily reports of use to the vast agricultural interests of the country. The farmers are beginning to base important operations on them. The territory of the United States has been divided into districts, each having a central distributive point, from which two copies of the synopsis and probabilities are forwarded by mail to every post-office that can be reached by rail, steamer or mail coach by 4 o'clock P. M. of the same day. It is the duty of the postmaster to exhibit the bulletins in frames as soon as received. 4,429 post-offices in the rural districts are thus supplied, and the work will be extended as rapidly as expedient. In one way and another it is estimated that the information emanating from the signal office reaches daily one-third of the households in the land.

Verily, say we, "Old Probs," deserves his wide fame. He is both a true and a very useful prophet.

☞ A boarding house dweller thinks that as so many useful articles are made out of paper, paper beefsteak might profitably be substituted for the leather ones now in use.

The Cuban Trouble.

Our dispatches last night indicate that there is too much disposition on the part of the Spanish Government to make all possible amends for whatever injury there may be in the Virginius outrage, for there to be any possible war.

In anticipation of peace, the friends of the administration already begin to blow largely about the promptness of the Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Robeson, in patching up his old boats for service.

France.

The telegraph tells the significant tale that in the debate in the French Assembly on the motion to prolong MacMahon's power, a motion of M. Rouher to refer the thing to the people with the intimation that the Bonaparte name was not dead yet, there was great excitement and an overwhelming defeat of the motion.

This would indicate Bonaparte stock to be at a large discount still.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

An Anecdote of Mr. Akerman—Congressional Jottings.

WASHINGTON, November 16, 1873.

Amos T. Akerman, the mental and physical giant who lately sat in the office of the Attorney-General of the United States, having been lost to sight, and not being to memory dear, was supposed by all to have been entirely forgotten. But to-day a correspondent of one of the Sunday papers presents the following anecdote which is much too good to keep for Washington alone:

EX-ATTORNEY GENERAL AKERMAN.

To the Editor of the Capital.]

In the last Sunday's Capital reference is made to that brilliant luminary of the law, ex-Attorney General Akerman, which reminds me of a little anecdote, as the late President Lincoln used to say. Just before the acquisition of California one Pio Pico, then Governor of the Mexican States, thinking it policy to make a landgrab for his own benefits, took advantage of an old Mexican law and granted to himself, Pio Pico, citizen, four square leagues of land, which he afterwards sold to—say John Smith. After the acquisition of California a commission was appointed to examine and adjust the old Spanish land grants, and among others that of Pio Pico. The commissioners decided that Pio Pico, as governor, had no power to grant to himself, Pio Pico, citizen, the four square leagues of land, which decision was confirmed by the United States District Court of California. After this decision the holder under Pio Pico sold the land for a mere nominal sum to lieutenant—say Jones,—of the United States army, who soon afterwards died, and here the matter rested for over twenty years, until it was revived by the widow of Lieutenant Jones a few years ago.

The case was brought up in the United States District Court for California on petition of the widow to have the grant or Pio Pico confirmed to her, and through a snap judgment the grant was so confirmed. The United States District Attorney for California appealed the case, notified Attorney General Akerman thereof, and asked for instructions in regard to the prosecution of the appeal. The astute Akerman held the case under advisement so long that interested parties became wearied at the delay, and employed an attorney here in Washington to call on the Attorney General and urge him to order the appeal to be prosecuted.

The Washington attorney called upon the profound Akerman and pressed the case, when that great luminary drawing himself up into a huge mass of consequential dignity, delivered himself of the following extraordinary and logical, yea brilliant, legal opinion:

It appears from the papers before me that one Pio Pico, Governor, granted to himself, Pio Pico, citizen, under an old Spanish law, four square leagues of land. This grant was held to be illegal by the United States Commissioners, and also by the United States District Court. Therefore the grant was null and void. But inasmuch as Pio Pico, Governor, did grant to himself, Pio Pico, citizen, the four square leagues of land, which grant by purchase afterwards became the property of a very meritorious officer of the United States army, the question of title has become a matter of very grave judicial consideration

IN GENERAL.

Busy preparations are making for the coming session of Congress, which promises to be a red-hot one.

The Senate Committee on Transportation meet here this week. Before meeting, a trip over the route of the Atlantic and Great Western Canal.

Despite all the bluster and busy preparations, it is the opinion of well-informed persons here, that there will be no war with Spain after all, unless Congress sees fit to force hostilities.

THOMAS HAUCK.

OUR TEXAS LETTER.

Some Interesting Facts About the City of Houston.

HUTCHIN HOUSE,
HOUSTON, TEX., NOV. 15, 1873.

Editors Constitution: This city, once the capital of the Lone Star when it was a republic, is a most beautiful and well built up place, containing about twenty thousand inhabitants, and the great railroad centre of the State. Its condition is prosperous and growing very fast, and is an important cotton market. It is the head of navigation on Buffalo Bayou. Steamers run daily between here and Galveston.

It is a great place for churches. I had pointed out to me this morning in riding over the city no less than fourteen beautiful edifices of that kind. Among them a large and elegant cathedral, one synagogue. I am also informed that much attention is given to Sabbath schools.

In coming from Galveston to this place you pass through a prairie country entirely, until you get within a few miles of this city. You can see herds of cattle almost by the thousand. Mr. Allan, the greatest cattle man in Texas, has a large number of herds on the railroad. I have been informed that the cattle he owns in this State is worth seven millions of dollars.

I have not seen much yet of the agricultural lands of this State, but what I have seen impresses me very favorably, and from what I have seen and heard of the State since I arrived here I have no hesitancy in saying that Texas is destined to be one of the greatest States in the Union. The people look remarkably stout and robust, as though they enjoyed good health; in fact, with the exception of the yellow fever in a few localities they have been very healthy this season, but that terrible disease still lingers in Calvert and Columbus. There has not been a case in this city or Galveston.

The people here are anxious to see emigrants, are ever ready to extend a hearty, cordial welcome to those who come here to cast their lot with them.

This is certainly the place for poor people to come. The cheapness and fertility of the soil is certainly a very great inducement to the homeless in the old States to make Texas their home. LIVE OAK.

☞ REST.—The best medicines in the world, more efficient in the cure of disease than all the potencies of the chemist's shop, are warmth, rest, cleanliness and pure air. Some persons make it a virtue to brave disease, "to keep up as long as they can move a foot or bend a finger," and it sometimes succeeds but in others the powers of life are thereby so completely exhausted that the system has lost all ability to recuperate, and slow and typhoid fever sets in, and carries the patient to a premature grave. Whenever walking or work is an effort, a warm bed and a cool room are the very first indispensable steps to a sure and speedy recovery. Instinct leads all beasts and birds to quietude and rest the very moment disease or wounds assail the system.

☞ Mrs. Forrest, the divorced wife of the late Edwin Forrest, is living very quietly, but in good style, on Staten Island.

FORSYTH.

Loss between $1,000 and $1,200.—Mr. Cicero Pritchett had two bales of cotton in the seed burned on last Saturday night in a cotton house on the plantation of Mr. John H. Greene. The gable end of one section of the Pye House was blown down, several residences lost their chimneys, circus pictures were demolished, and several thousand palings went on visits into the adjoining counties.—The Advertiser publishes a letter from the Hon. J. P. Benjamin, of London, to Mr. M. Bechter, in which the writer says that the whole story of a fortune coming to Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Chambers, the two ladies of Madison, "is an absurd fable and there is not one word of truth in it from beginning to end. The ladies have been duped by a swindler who has imposed on their credulity."—Mr. Jesse Aycock, aged 70 years, died at his residence near Forsyth on Sunday morning.—Advertiser.

EATONTON.

Mr. Robert Young, Sr., and Captain William Hearn two of Putnam's oldest citizens, died on Monday, th 10th instant. Mr. Young, the father of Major T Young, was in his 84th year and was a native of Ireland. He moved to Georgia in 1816 from South Carolina. Captain Hearn was considerably over 70 years of age, and a member of the Baptist church for many years.—Col. R. B Nesbit, and Mrs. R. H. Nesbit, both of Eatonton, were married on the 12th instant, at the residence of Mr. Frank A. Nesbit, in Russell county, Alabama.—On Wednesday the 12th instant, in the neighborhood of Hearnville, on the old Callaway place, one Frank Coleman, colored, shot and killed his father Washington Coleman. It appears that Frank and his brother-in-law had a difficulty. The father interfered to prevent the son from hurting his son-in-law whereupon Frank turned and shot the old man. He was run off, and is not arrested.—Messenger.

AMERICUS.

On Saturday afternoon last there was a little unpleasantness in Americus between two gentlemen, one living in the county and the other in the city. The country gentleman was severely cut on the head and side of the neck. He has gone to law.—A sneak thief went through Mr. S. S. Sullivan's pantaloons on Friday night. A gold watch, chain and pocket book are among the things that were.—In answer to calls for assistance from Bainbridge, the citizens of Americus, with a generosity that reflects the highest credit upon them, have raised and sent $389 to that stricken community.—Republican.

One of the best instances of the great blessing that a man possesses in a thoughtful wife comes from Americus. In that social little place resides a gentleman, who very often comes home late at night, and in a condition that renders him somewhat oblivious to his surroundings. As the gate and the fence around his house were pretty much of the same hue, the gentleman has always experienced considerable difficulty in effecting an entrance, and has several times called upon the police, at unwonted hours, to assist him in catching the thief who had stolen that gate. Now his heroic wife has not only never reprimanded at his hours or habits, but with a thoughtfulness which has no counterpart in modern history, has actually had that gate painted a brilliant white to enable her lord to find it. If that lady had a thousand daughters we would insure every one of them first class husbands in this part of the country.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. William Whidbee, an old and respected citizen of Portsmouth, dropped dead in the sail loft at the navy yard on Wednesday evening last, a few minutes before five o'clock. He went to the yard in his usual good health, and was engaged in lively conversation when he was suddenly attacked with apoplexy and expired immediately. Mr. Whidbee was 80 years of age, and had served as a soldier in the war of 1812. He was one of the oldest citizens of Portsmouth and much respected. Norfolk Landmark.

THE SAVANNAH FAIR

TOURNAMENT—GREAT CATHOLIC DEMONSTRATION—CORNER STONE OF CATHEDRAL LAID.

Savannah Special to the Atlanta Constitution.

SAVANNAH, November 19, 1873.

To-day has been very cold and blustering. In spite of this drawback the attendance at the Fair was much better than yesterday. There were no races, but the tournament came off. This was a sabre contest of the Georgia Huzzars. The first prize was won by H. P. Miller, the second by Gen. R. H. Anderson, and the third by Lewis Ryals.

The hotels are rapidly filling up, and there is much better prospect for the Fair for the balance of the week.

CATHOLIC DEMONSTRATION.

The laying of the corner stone of the Catholic Cathedral was a grand and immense Catholic demonstration. A great procession of military, societies and children were in column, and large numbers of delegates were present from the cities of Atlanta, Macon, Columbus and other places.

The concourse at the Cathedral was vast The ceremonies were very imposing. An eloquent address was delivered by Bishop Gibbons, of Virginia, The occasion was a great success—one in which the Catholics throughout the entire State are deeply interested.

THE REIGNING SENSATION

SPANISH COMMENT—THE CABINET AT WASHINGTON TALKING WAR.

HAVANA, November 19.—The Vose de Cuba publishes a rumor that seventeen prisoners have been shot at Halquin on account of a recently discovered conspiracy to cooperate with the Cubans on board of the Virginius. There is no official confirmation of the report.

The same paper says editorially that the laws ought to be enforced energetically against conspirators without consideration of either title or rank for what strangers may say or do. We are owners of our homes, and are well able to manage our own affairs and defend our rights.

Advices from Santiago de Cuba, dated 12th instant, says that on that day the Captain of the British steamer Niobe and the British Consul at Santiago, were in the prison and had interviews with the captives who remained alive.

It was expected at Santiago that the United States steamer Wyoming would reach here on the 13th.

WASHINGTON, November 19.—As an evidence of the entire unanimity in the Cabinet on the existing complications growing out of the Virginius capture and its consequences, it may be mentioned that all the Cabinet officers, though guarded in their expressions as to what diplomatic action has been taken by the government or what will be the result of it, do not hesitate to speak in regard to their entire confidence in the President and the course pursued when the same shall become known.

It is a noticeable fact that in these expressions there is evidence of thorough accord between the President and his Cabinet. Secretary Richardson, in a conversation with a representative of the Associated Press today stated: "I have every confidence in Secretary Fish. He will do just right, and you may rest assured he will be carried away by no excitement, neither will he yield one bit of the national honor."

In reference to the ability of the United States to wager a successful war with Spain, should it be found necessary to resort to arms, he said: "Should such a course be determined upon, the Treasury Department is fully prepared. We have enough money to commence with, but exactly what will be done afterwards, depends upon the prolongation of the war, though I have no doubt it would be of short duration. As Congress will be here in two weeks, it is very certain that there will be no difficulty in raising all the means we want. A war, of course, will be expensive, as it requires large sums of money to move armies and fit out ships, but we are equal to the emergency."

We then asked the question, "Do you find the Cabinet warlike?" and upon being answered that the sentiment seemed to be to uphold the national honor, "he repeated that the opinions of Mr. Fish are correct, and the Treasury Department is prepared to maintain these opinions." Do I understand, Judge, that you are in favor of the annexation of Cuba? Answer, after a significant silence, "While I do not say what I am in favor of, I do say that I will stand by Mr. Fish and whatever the Secretary does. I believe the Secretary of State is a careful, cautious and judicious man; that he will not get us into any embarrassment is my decided opinion. I have given much attention to the subject in its present shape—it belongs entirely to the Department of State. I assume that if we had war with Spain, it would result in the annexation of Cuba. The Secretary was then asked if the acquisition of that island would not very materially disarrange our tariff system, to which he replied at first, of course it would upset everything, as we should lose a large sum of money on the first of the year from the import duties on sugar and tobacco, which we now receive, but after that our Internal collectors on those articles, especially on tobacco, would more than compensate for that loss.

Question—"Would it not be necessary to keep a large army of customs officers there.

Answer—"Yes, it could be a great place for smuggling, and it would necessitate the establishment of custom houses all along the coast, as there is such an extent of coast that many persons have to be employed to guard it." The Secretary was asked if the government knew officially of the past history of the Virginius. He replied that it did, the vessel having been twice owned by the government, once belonging to the division of captured and abandoned property of the treasury, by which she was sold, and again in 1870 she was seized at Mobile for the debt of a defaulting assistant Treasurer. She was then brought here to the Potomac and sold to New York, and named Patterson. Her name was then the Virgin, but upon being taken to New York, her name was changed to Virginius. I believe the Virginius and the vessel which captured her (the Tornado) were both built on the Clyde by the same builders for blockade runners during the war. Unusual activity prevails in Washington Navy Yard, and in some of the departments over time is being made. A large force is at work on the steamer Shawmit, a third class, three gun vessel, belonging to the North Atlantic station, and the Tallapoosa, a transport paddle wheel steamer, is now being rapidly repaired. A large force is engaged in the ordnance department making amunition. Lieutenant Fletcher has reported at the yard as recruiting officer. His headquarters are on the receiving ship Relief, lying at the dock. Already some men have been enlisted, and a large number of inquiries have been made as to terms. The volunteer movements to raise troops have thus far been among the colored people, who through no official intimation, stimulate their action, and apprehend that the government will have need for their services in the field. The less excitable and by far the larger part of the population are settling down in the belief that the services of those first to declare their willingness to enlist for Cuba will not be required. Prominent gentlemen who have heretofore been opposed to the acquisition of Cuba, now strongly express themselves in favor of such a measure. They say the Spaniards receive from the United States many millions of dollars annually for such articles as we import from Cuba, while the United States are, owing to the restriction and arbitrary trade regulations, almost excluded from the commercial advantages in the matter of exports. As one instance of this truth, the export of flour amounts nearly to prohibition, it being carried first to Spain and thence to Cuba, a duty of $8 a barrel, and so of other American products. These gentlemen would prefer a new commercial treaty provided one could be obtained on just and equitable terms, with a reasonable guarantee for its faithful execution, but as the Spanish government has shown itself powerless to enforce its authority in Cuba, and from the further fact that our commerce has been frequently interfered with in many ways by the Spanish authorities, the most certain way of relieving ourselves from present and future trouble, would be to acquire the Island if the best way possible. At present the Spanish Government is opposed to a separation of her colonies from the mother country, but hereafter there might be a state of affairs which would not admit of a previous consultation with Spain, on that subject that there were not only outrages in the West India waters to redress, but these are against American citizens residing on th Island. These have been the subject of negotiation which has been embarrassed by Spanish official delays and the opposition of the Cuban authorities—the latter being controlled by the Casino Espaqual—more potent than the throne itself in Cuba. Besides, there is no way of putting an end to slavery and the cruel and barbarous coolie trade under present circumstances, if we have to depend on the promises made by the Spanish government which have thus far failed of execution. Reforms in Cuba and Porto Rico in these respects have been pressed by our government, but without a practical result, for the reason as already stated, the Spanish government is impotent to enforce its authority. They say the most common observer must see that this state of affairs cannot exist much longer The public patience is exhausted, and there is no telling when something more than protests and the asking for explanation on our part will be unanimously demanded by the citizens of the United States, to secure peace on our border, and to guard American interests and honor from future molestation and injury, and, furthermore, to terminate forever the repetition of the barbarities towards prisoners, whether taken in insurrection or otherwise, which, while they receive the strong condemnation they deserve, have more than once been officially condemned by our government as contrary to the humane and christian sentiment of the age.

POSTAL CARD ARRANGEMENT.

WASHINGTON, November 19.—An arrangement has been entered into between the United States and Germany for an exchange of postal cards between the two countries, to go into effect on the first of December, 1873. The postage on postal cards sent from the United States to Germany is fixed at two cents each.

Prepayment of which is to be made by affixing to the United States postal cards an ordinary one cent United States postage stamp, in addition to the stamp printed or impressed on the card; but unpaid or insufficiently paid postal cards will not be forwarded in the mails between the two countries.

MADRID, November 19.—The Imperial newspaper particularly remarks of the moderate tone of the protest of the British government regarding the Virginius affair.

Figueras, the President of the Cortes, held a protracted conference with the Minister of Foreign Affairs to-day. For what purpose has not transpired.

It is reported that Figueras starts for London this evening.

The deputies of the Republican Ministry have requested an immediate convocation of Cortes to consider complication with foreign powers which they allege the government has caused. The Minister of war has ordered all members of the reserve of the army to report in person at the departments of their respective corps within a fortnight.

WASHINGTON, November 19.—The impression is general in official and other circles here to-day, that the Spanish government is disposed to make every effort to settle the impending difficulties, and gentlemen who hold intimate and personal relations with the President assert their belief that war will not arise from the present complications, inasmuch as Spain, through Prime Castelar, has given assurances that all proper demands from this Government will be complied with. The energy and promptitude of Secretary Robeson, in presenting bold front by our Navy, have been a subject of much favorable comment here. The fact that the efficiency of our Navy is being demonstrated so completely is set forth as one of the reasons for the impression that war is not likely to result from the pending troubles. A letter was received in this city to-day from General Longstreet, offering the service of 25,000 men to the government should a necessity arise therefor.

SAVANNAH, November 7th, 1873.

Col. B. W. Frobel, Atlanta, Ga.:

DEAR COLONEL.—Though you may be informed as to the date the Committee on Transportation will meet in Atlanta, still I write to say the date is the 19th inst.

It will be well for you to notify Major McFarland to be present. I do not know his address.

Yours very truly,
T. M. NORWOOD.

(Signed)

This letter was received about ten days ago, and on its suggestions, the Committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to confer with the United States Senate Committee on Transportation, acted in inviting other cities to send delegations of their citizens here to confer also with Mr. Windom's Committee.

It appears that the meeting of the Committee in Atlanta, has been postponed until December, as the following dispatch informs us.

WASHINGTON, November 16, 1873.

Hon. Thomas M. Norwood, Savannah, Ga.:

We are compelled to postpone our Southern trip until the holidays. Will certainly go then.

WILLIAM WINDOM.

This dispatch, dated last Sunday, November 16th, first reached us this morning (the 19th) through the local columns of the Savannah News.

We deem this explanation due our own citizens and the delegates from other cities, who have been called here by our action, based upon this correspondence.

B. W. Frobell, Chairman; John Stephens, A. J. McBride, Benj. E. Crane, W. J. Garrett, G. W. Adair, W. P. Padillo, A. C. Wyly, Thomas M. Clark, Amos Fox, D. Mayer, E. P. Chamberlin.

The Justices' Courts.

Justices Butt and Sasseen disposed of two criminal warrants yesterday. A white man, named Henry Reed, was tried for attempting to break into the First Methodist Church. He was arrested by the police at a late hour night before last, under circumstances that looked very suspicious, and seemed to indicate an intention to commit burglary. The prisoner failed to give any satisfactory account of himself, and the Court sent him to jail.

Tom Williams, alias Tom James, also tried before these magistrates for hog stealing. As the police are still after a white man who is implicated in this hog business, we suppress further facts. The negro was sent to jail, where it is probable he will stay until he starts for the chain gang.

Station House Report.

Business in police circles had considerably decreased yesterday from what it was the day before. It was too cold for most of the frequenters of this resort to stay upon the streets, so they went home before they imbibed sufficient whisky to make them drunk. There was one State arrest of a negro named Steele, who stole a saddle from Judge Loyden. The theft was committed a month ago, but as the darkey had violated his promise about returning the property, the arrest was ordered. There were also three city cases for straight-out drunks.

PERSONAL.—Professor E. LeHardy, of Rome, Chairman of the Rome delegation to meet the Transportation Committee, was in the city yesterday.

The Catholic Supper Last Night.

We have yet to attend a Catholic festival of any kind that was not a success in every way, social and pecuniary. Our Catholic friends have a practical, energetic way of taking hold of things that never fails to win triumph.

The soiree and supper given last night at the Skating Rink was in every sense a success, and therefore formed no exception to the habitual custom of Catholic triumph in such matters. The large rink was well filled with entertained guests. The supper was a solid, palatable one. The dancing was enjoyed to the utmost by the ladies and gentlemen. Perfect order prevailed, and enjoyment was the rule of the hour.

A large amount of money must have been taken in and will furnish a handsome fund for the new church.

We left at midnight, and the large throng was busy in demolishing the supper and threading the mazy dance.

THE SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY.—The Southern Express Company have removed into Adair's fine brick building on Wall street. The building, three story, fronts 50 feet on Wall street, and runs back 80 feet, with alleys on two sides. The Express Company occupy the whole of the first floor. The room of the Superintendent is elegantly carpeted, and the cabinet folding desk of walnut, with maple finish, is one of the handsomest that we have ever seen. The money department is arranged in splendid style. A capacious vault occupies the center of the department, with doors on each side, and burglar proof safes, one side being devoted to "inward money," and the other to "outward money."

The agents room is near the entrance, where he is in such a position, that he can address easily any of the clerks. Cashier, route agent, and other departments are separate and defined by neat iron railings. The "old horse" room is large and convenient. The company supplies several of its employees who sleep there with iron bedsteads and mattrasses.

The basement is very large, well ventilated and protected by an area wall on every side.

The second floor contains eleven and the third floor twelve rooms, supplied with mantel pieces and grates. A dumb waiter and a flight of steps connect the basement with the second and third floors. The basement and second and third floors have been rented to the Surgical Institute of Indianapolis, Indiana. They treat a certain class of physical deformities and malformations, out of the reach of ordinary practice. The building cost $25,000.

BURGLARY ON MCDONOUGH STREET.—Yesterday morning between twelve o'clock and daylight another burglary was perpetrated in our city—this time at the store of Mr. J. P. Trottie, on McDonough street. The burglars effected an entrance by placing two barrels under the window, and then mounting on top of them and prizing the bar away from the window. After effecting an entrance into the store the scoundrels seem to have deliberately taken away whatever they desired. They turned over everything in the store, and appropriated the following articles:

Seven or eight sacks of flour, one cheese, three hundred pounds of bacon, and two one-half boxes of tobacco. They may have taken other things, but the above are the most valuable. Up to eleven o'clock last night no arrests had been made, although every effort had been used by the authorities to get on their tracks. It is to be hoped that these efforts may soon be more successful, and the scoundrels sent to re-inforce Messrs. Grant, Alexander & Co.

BEAUTY A DUTY.—REV. DR. TUCKER TO-NIGHT.—The first lecture for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city will be delivered by Rev. H. H. Tucker, D. D., at James' Hall this evening. Subject—"Beauty a Duty." Let every body hear this able and distinguished gentleman, as he treats this subject in a most humorous and interesting manner; at the same time clearly showing, that it is the duty of every one to be handsome. Season tickets admitting a gentleman and lady to the four lectures by the Rev. Dr. Tucker, Rev. James Dixon, D. D., Bishop Pierce, and Hon. Alex. H. Stephens, can be had at Phillips & Crew's book store, for one dollar. This fact was inadvertently omitted in the advertisement.

AN OUTRAGE UPON DECENCY.—We are deeply pained to chronicle the fact that there are some young men in our town who pretend to be gentlemen and yet who seem to seek every occasion to degrade their species. Last night at a negro ball in a filthy cellar on the corner of Broad and Hunter streets, amidst a swarm of dirty negro wenches and Yankee soldiers were to be found some of the young gentlemen. One of them, only a few weeks ago, was arrested in this same den for getting drunk and trying to raise a row, and spent the balance of the night in the guard house. What pleasure a white man can find in such company, in a place reeking with mean whisky and vile tobacco, we are utterly at a loss to see. The names of these young gentlemen are all in the hands of our police.

PENCILGRAMS.—What Atlanta editor is going badger hunting to-morrow?

A fascinating belle says that she likes beauty, don't object to wealth, but would like to possess wit!

Two school-marms, who live in a town not far remote from Atlanta, dress and look so much alike, and are so often together that it is conjectured that if not sisters, they will be sisters-in-law.

The Ides of Christmas are approaching! And yet ye have not a ticket!

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—This order is spreading rapidly in the State. The Grand Councillor John S. Davidson, is a young man to be the head of such a live order, but his moral worth, mature judgment, executive ability and social position render him the "right man in the right place." His administration is bound to be a brilliant one, and result in the prosperity and usefulness of the order.

THE ladies of the Central Presbyterian Church have decided to hold a series of sociables this winter, in order that the members of the Church and congregation may become better acquainted. The first one will be at the house of Mrs. E. L. Jones, 30 Oak street, on Friday evening of this week, if the evening is not stormy. All the members of the Church and congregation are cordially invited.

THE SENATE TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEE.—The Transportation Committee of the United States Senate did not arrive here yesterday as expected. It appears that the Committee have postponed their visit until some time in December. The Committee on the part of the Chamber of Commerce ex. lain the matter in another place.

WE thought the financial crash now upon the country was seriously injuring everybody, but judging from the exceedingly low figures J. M. Holbrook is now selling his beautiful line of Furs and Millinery Goods, it must certainly be a benefit to the ladies.

Editors Constitution: They are said to be a blessed people who devise liberal things. And all history teaches that no devices are so liberal or so blessed of God and man as those that have for their aim the amelioration of human suffering.

With this introduction I have a few suggestions to make to the large hearted, benevolent ladies of Atlanta. The bleak days of winter, with its bitter, cold winds and drifting snow, will soon be upon us, and never before, perhaps, in the history of our city have there been so many poor struggling people dependent upon their labor for bread and fuel thrown unexpecily out of employment. Among these are hundreds of helpless women and children, who are, even now, destitute of the means of subsistence, and with nothing before them as the winter approaches but hopeless misery and starvation. Something in the name of humanity, if not for God's sake, must be done.

Cannot a scheme, something like the following, be put in operation as soon as it may be needed? Let a suitable room be rented and furnished with table, stove, and whatever else may be necessary for the purpose. To this room, each day, let as many families as have the heart and means send such fragments and superfluities of God's bounty to them, as remain from their own meals, to be served up by some proper person in attendance to as many indigent or destitute people as may choose to avail themselves of the provision.

A single half-dime a week from some two hundred benevolent citizens, out of Atlanta's population of thirty thousand—and are there not ten times that number of earnest Christians, to say nothing of benevolence among us—would be amply sufficient to defray all the expenses of the enterprise, in the way of fuel, utensils, attendance and rent.

In connection with this establishment, a provision against imposition, like that which works so well in New York, could be easily arranged, and with great convenience and advantage too, in a financial point of view. Let tickets be issued by the managers of the value of ten, twenty, or fifty cents each, redeemable at the room in meals, fuel, and it may be clothing. These tickets will be readily bought by benevolent persons, especially when presented by ladies, and on the application of any one asking charity, they can furnish these tickets, as the case may require, with the assurance that the charity will be properly used.

What say the ladies of Atlanta? An enterprise like this improved and expanded by the practical forethought and energy of such ladies as Mrs. Leftwich, Miss Nellie Peters, Miss Hill, Miss Love, Miss Fannie Wallace, Miss Mary Dunwoodie, Mrs. Camp, Mrs. Bowie, Mrs. Fox and a host of others that could be named in all the churches of the city, would brighten the lot and cheer the hearts of hundreds of sufferers amid the privations and sorrows of the coming winter.

Will not the ladies move in this matter and organize at once a society that shall be known, for all time to come, as the Ladies Aid Society of Atlanta.

CARRY FORWARD.

WORN TO A SHADOW.—Flesh, muscle and mind alike deteriorate when the stomach falters in its duty and the bowels do not perform their part as scavengers of the system regularly and naturally. In chronic dyspepsia the body is usually emaciated, and the muscular fibre loose and flabby, and the brain incapable of prolonged or vigorous exertion. Every organ, every member, even the immortal mind itself, is to a certain extent dependent upon the stomach for support. Strengthen and regulate this feeder of the system with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, when it fails to perform its functions properly. A good appetite, an increased flow of the gastric juice, and perfect digestion and assimilation will assuredly be the result. The manner in which the great tonic and alterative effects a cure of dyspepsia is direct and simple. It stimulates the digestive organs, cleanses without convulsing the bowels, regulates the flow of bile and determines it into the right channels, and exercises a tranquilizing influence over the nerves.

DR. TUTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS.
THE ONLY KNOWN MEDICINE,
THAT AT THE SAME TIME
PURGES, PURIFIES AND STRENGTHENS THE SYSTEM.
Dr. Tutt's Pills are composed of many ingredients. Prominent among them are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united as to act together in the one, through its admixture with other substances, purifying and purging; while the other is strengthening the system. Thus these Pills are at the same time a tonic and a cathartic, a desideratum long sought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words, they do the work of two medicines and do it much better than any two we know of, for they remove nothing from the system but impurities, so that while they purge they also strengthen and hence they cause no debility and are followed by no reaction.
Dr. Tutt's Pills have a wonderful influence on the blood. They not only purify without weakening it, but they remove all noxious particles from the chyle before it is converted into fluid, and thus makes impure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no debilitation, so there is no nausea or sickness attending the operation of this most excellent medicine, which never strains or tortures the digestive organs, but causes them to work in a perfectly natural manner; hence persons taking them do not become pale and emaciated, but on the contrary, while all impurities are being removed, the combined action of the Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry purifies and invigorates the body, and a robust state of health is the result of their united action. Price 25 cents a box. Sold by all druggists. Depot 43 Courtland street, New York.
